Gem of a Diamond Jubilee celebration

By NAFEESA SHAN

Thousands celebrated the Queen's Diamond Jubilee at weekend parties across East Lancashire.

When the rain came, some were moved indoors, while others were salvaged when communities pulled together and found gazebos and marquees in which to shelter.

Party-goers at dozens of events showed it takes more than a downpour to stop them having fun.

One of the biggest events was in Blackburn's New Bank Road on Sunday, where 700 people got stuck into the festivities.

There were also major events in Nelson, Mercer Park, in Clayton-le-Moors, and Darwen, and countless parties in neighbourhoods in every one of our towns.

At Brunshaw Avenue, in Burnley, residents ploughed on with their big event for the day despite the rain.

A marquee stretched the length of the road's shops and was packed with families enjoying live music. Everyone got fed thanks to a local chippy. The party was a joint venture between Brunshaw Action Group and Calico Homes.

Dave Stevenson, from the residents' group, and Josephine Trundle, Calico's neighbourhood officer, employed quick thinking when wet weather threatened to spoil the day.

Josephine said: "We had visions of lining the whole of Brunshaw Avenue with tables and chairs, but that was impossible in this weather. We didn't want to call things off, so we set up by the shops, and we worked things out with

Citizen In brief

Chance to raise any concerns with MP

Burnley MP Gordon Birtwistle is running an advice stall in the town centre every Saturday, weather permitting.

Mr Birtwistle will be outside Marks and Spencer, from 10.30am to 12.30pm.

Mementoes day

A Collecting History Day is being held at Burnley Library on Thursday, June 21, from 1pm until 4pm.

Anyone with a Lancashire memento, with a story behind it, can take it along for it to be photographed and logged.

Step back in time

Visitors to Gawthorpe Hall, Padiham, will be taken back to the 17th century this weekend to learn all about domestic life at the National Trust landmark. Admission is £4 for adults, and £3 for concessions.

Policing matters

Burnley's town centre policing team will meet locals at a Police and Communities Together meeting on June 12, from 2pm, at Charter Walk customer services office.

Thousands turn out for Jubilee festivities

Brunshaw Fish and Chips to make sure everyone got some food. We also had some very kind donations from businesses.

"In some ways, it's quite fitting that it has rained. It makes the whole thing seem very British."

Friends Eileen Charlton and Pat Hamer, both 70, said the party was as well-organised as anything they had seen before.

Pat said: "We go to see the Queen each time she visits Burnley and it's wonderful that, even in the modern age, people come out to celebrate the monarchy.

"Things were different when she took to the throne.

"The Coronation was the first time a lot of us watched a television and it was a very big deal as you never really knew what the Royal Family looked like."

In Nelson town centre, there was live music, and free ice-cream for under-14s. There were also food stalls, free fairground rides, and charity stalls.

Families from all cultures turned up to join in the Jubilee celebrations.

At the Fraser Street Project, in Burnley, children put up buntings and flags on the lampposts outside for their party on Saturday night.

Horoscopes with Claire Petulengro

Aries March 21st-April 20th

Taking chances this weekend is not really recommended I'm afraid Aries. You would be far better to stick to your original game plan and work on tying up loose ends. You see, you are casting yourself as a character who begins things but does not end them. A new friendship puts the spring back in your step and erases pressures. Phone me now to hear how Saturn can also add structure to your life.

Call: 0906 585 4516

Taurus April 21st-May 21st

Friends and lovers are not going to be mixing well at this time I'm afraid. You can try to make them get on but part of the problem is that you've been attempting to force them together. Leave them to it. Do they really have to live in each others pockets? New work avenues beckon and Thursday and Friday are great days for job interviews. Phone me now to reveal who your soul mate is.

Call: 0906 585 4517

Gemini May 22nd-June 21st

You must try to keep on the right side of those you deal with Gemini, as you've spent far too much time looking for confrontation this month. Maybe if you talked to the person who is really responsible for the stress that you're feeling then we'd all feel a lot happier. Job changes are favoured but this time, aspects show you can go the social route to get them. Phone now for insight.

Call: 0906 585 4518

Cancer June 22nd-July 23rd

This is the perfect time for another try at something you've failed in. You see Cancer, if you approach anything with trepidation and fear, then you are going to increase your chances of failure. The beginning of a new path in a close one's life requires your support. Make sure that you give it to them. Phone me now to hear why it's worth telling those with power what your dreams are.

Call: 0906 585 4519

Leo July 24th-August 23rd

This is a really lucky time in love. You're not longer afraid of what people think of you. You've realised that if you are gong to be happy romantically, then you have to let the real you shine through. Don't indulge in arguments with 'that' face who you know is only trying to cause trouble. They're not worth it. Phone me now to hear how Mercury favours exciting travel this month.

Call: 0906 585 4520

Virgo August 24th-September 23rd

Happy times can be found if only you'd make the decision to leave the past behind. Why you insist on living in it is a bit of a mystery, as it gave you only pain, not happiness. Focus on what's ahead. It's guaranteed to put far more of a spring in your step. Don't be afraid to flirt this week. It can bring a really compatible sign into your life. Ring me now to hear who your perfect sign would be.

Call: 0906 585 4521

Libra September 24th-October 23rd

You have not been feeling at your best, but from Tuesday onwards you start to pick yourself up and focus on all of the good things that are in your life. Let's be honest Libra, the forced change in your life was actually a blessing in disguise and it's time you acknowledged that. News of a marriage or union in your circle gives you reason to plan a trip. Phone me now for a full reading.

Call: 0906 585 4522

Scorpio October 24th-November 22nd

You are running around trying to do too many things at one. You could, of course, always try dealing with the real issue at hand. This would mean making a series of phone calls and perhaps even a visit to someone. Is it worth it? I think so, don't you? Plan financial dealings or confrontations for Friday for success. Give me a ring now to hear why you'll need to polish up foreign languages.

Call: 0906 585 4523

Sagittarius November 23rd-December 21st

If you feel that you're stuck in a rut then do something about it, don't lay down and accept it. Neptune and Uranus can help you to make the impossible possible. Believe in your dreams and don't accept second best. You're better than that, aren't you? Give me a call now to hear why it's vital you don't believe any gossip or rumours that are flying about this week.

Call: 0906 585 4524

Capricorn December 22nd-January 20th

The need to see someone from your family, or to find out how they are getting on could see you having to tell a white lie to those you work with. Just make sure you know how far is too far to go when weaving your tales, or it could have a domino effect on your life. New attractions come at a price, but for once it could be worth paying. Phone me now so I can talk to you about life.

Call: 0906 585 4525

Aquarius January 21st-February 19th

You must back off and leave the person alone who is not responding to your affections. If not, you are going to cast yourself in a needy and immature light. Put your time and energy into the things in your life which can give something back. You don't need to beg, trust me Aquarius. Give me a call now to hear why this is such a great time for you to go for new jobs or ask for promotions.

Call: 0906 585 4526

Pisces February 20th-March 20th

There may be a mix up over social plans and events but try to take a backseat and let others argue the finer details or you could be the one who is landed with the blame for things going wrong. You're started to take a more mature view of life lately and you're ready to make commitments you would have previously run a mile from. Phone me now so I can tell you why this year can be your best yet.

Jessica's mother's justice campaign

By KATE JACKSON

A HEARTBROKEN mother who had a laptop stolen with the precious photographs of her daughter, killed in a car crash, is now leading a groundbreaking project to help other victims of crime.

Margaret Foxley has been selected to chair a community justice panel.

The burglar stole a laptop contained photographs of her daughter Jessica, who died in a car crash with two friends in Colne six months later.

Since meeting the offender she has been working with police to create the panel which will trial in Colne.

If successful it will be rolled out across the rest of the county as part of a restorative justice programme.

Last week, Mrs Foxley from Laneshawbridge, travelled to London to speak at a conference run by the Restorative Justice Council about her experiences.

TRAGEDY: Jessica

She said: "I was approached to speak at the conference because of my work with Lancashire police.

"Restorative justice focuses on the victim and the consequences of the offender's actions.

"I have been working with the police for the past two years to get the project off the ground. Seven victims have come forward and we are hoping to launch it in the next couple of months."

Head of Criminal Justice for Lancashire Police Tim Ewen is heading the scheme. He said: "The panels are des-igned to enable victims of crime to share their experiences and to see how further assistance can be given to them."

Mrs Foxley, who is director of complementary studies at Queen Elizabeth's Grammar School in Blackburn said that the school is also using restorative justice as part of the school approach at tackling problems with pupils.

She added: "Restorative justice can be used on many levels."

MISSION: Margaret Foxley, who is leading a project to help other victims of crime

Jibe raises hospice cash

PLANE SAILING: Burnley fans Mark O'Dowd and Trisha Neville, at Turf Moor, with the £1,350 cheque

A LIGHT-hearted jibe at Blackburn Rovers fans has raised a total of £1,350 for Pendleside Hospice.

The cheque was handed over on the Turf Moor pitch by Clarets fan Mark O'Dowd.

A Facebook group, called 'Agent Kean's Appreciation Society', was set up by Burnley fans.

The group was created by Mark, who called for donations to fund a plane to fly over the final Rovers game of the season, carrying a banner which read 'In Venky's We Trust – Burnley SU' (Support Union).

Mark, 39, of Cliffe Street, Padiham, said: "I asked if people would be willing to pay towards flying a banner over Ewood, like they did to us 20 years ago, and any extra raised would go to the hospice.

"Money was given from all over the world."

One of the donations was a signed Charlie Austin shirt, auctioned online, donated by Burnley fan Martin Arkwright, which raised £83.

Burnley Borough Council

Appointment of an Independent Person to Assist the Standards Committee

Would you like to play a key role in promoting and maintaining high standards of local government conduct?

We are looking for someone with political awareness but without political affiliations, with a keen interest in local governance and a commitment to high standards and ethics in public life, to act as an Independent Person, to assist our Monitoring Officer and Standards Committee with their work. You must be independent minded but be able to work as part of a team.

The Council has a duty to promote and maintain high standards of conduct of its Elected Members and Co-opted Members. Duties of the Standards Committee include promoting high standards and deciding complaints about breaches of our Code of Conduct for Members, as well as the Codes for the Town and Parish Councils within the Borough.

You cannot be appointed as an Independent Person if you are currently a Member, Co-opted Member, Parish or Town Councillor, officer of Burnley Borough Council, have been within the last five years or if you are a relative or close friend of such a person.

Although this is an unpaid role, travel expenses will be covered if attendance at standards related meetings is required.

Recruitment packs are available online only. For a pack or to apply online please visit: www.burnley.gov.uk/jobs

Closing date: Monday 11 June 2012.

Interview date: Friday 29 June 2012.

PCs in knife terror hailed 'true heroes'

By CHRIS ADAMS

Two officers who were attacked with a knife as they fought to arrest a violent suspect have been awarded the highest police bravery honour in Lancashire.

PC Marc Rigby and PC Ian McGinty battled with Robert Wilson following an eight-hour manhunt after he bit off his girlfriend's nose, and then went on a rampage through Simonstone.

They received the William Garnett Cup from Deputy Chief Constable Chris Weigh, and Police Authority chairman Bruce Jassi, at a ceremony last week.

The incident began as a serious domestic assault at a house in Hapton Road, Padiham, at 3am, in which Wilson attacked his victim, Jane Ireland.

Wilson, who was on licence from a life sentence imposed in 2003 after he was convicted of three woundings with intent to cause grievous bodily harm, fled from the scene with a kitchen knife, wearing only his underwear.

VIOLENT: Robert Wilson

When the officers approached and challenged Wilson, he ran at PC Rigby brandishing an eight-inch knife and tackled him to the ground, attempting to strike his legs with the weapon.

PC McGinty then used multiple Taser discharges to bring Wilson under control. The officers suffered minor cuts and bruises, but Miss Ireland had to undergo multiple reconstructive surgery on her face and nose.

Commending the officers, Mr Jassi said: "The extreme danger these officers faced that day was both real and very terrifying. The incident could easily have had a different outcome had it not been for their professionalism, restraint and bravery, and they represent the very best of Lancashire Constabulary."

Deputy Chief Constable Weigh said: "Without their commitment and bravery, more people could have been hurt by a dangerous offender.

"The title of a 'hero' sometimes gets used a bit too often, but both these officers are just that."

HIGHEST HONOUR: PC Ian McGinty, left, and PC Marc Rigby with the award and, below, police at the scene in Simonstone

Ladies can step this way to help hospice

Policing matters

Residents in the Gannow ward of Burnley can meet the police today (Wednesday, June 6), from 6pm, at the community centre, in Adamson Street.

Town past and present in new book

BURNLEY historian Jack Nadin has released a fascinating new book comparing Burnley past and present.

The picture-led book includes matching photos of areas in the borough taken recently, and rare ones taken decades ago.

Former miner Jack, who now lives in Padiham, has had several books published, including East Lancashire Mining Memories, Burnley Cotton Mills, and Padiham in Old Photographs, and is well-known in the town for his research.

JACK NADIN

He said: "From the thriving industrial town which developed around coal mining, cotton weaving, and spinning, to the modern commuter town of today, Burnley has experienced many changes."

The book details the decline of the town's old industries, and records the changing face of Burnley.

Specialist publisher The History Press said: "These evocative images are compared, and contrasted, with vibrant images of the modern town, and are accompanied by insightful commentary from Jack Nadin, taking you on a journey through the town and its history."

The book is available now, priced at £12.99.

ROYAL MESSAGE: John Chapman with his telegram from the Queen

Cheers to John on his 100th birthday

A great-great-grandfather, from Burnley, celebrated receiving a telegram from the Queen last week.

John Chapman spent his 100th birthday celebrating with family at Hilton Read Home, in Padiham.

And his eldest son, John Jr, 75, said his father puts his good health down to popping out of the home for a cheeky pint on the way back from trips to the barbers.

He said: "He's taken his retirement seriously by doing not very much!

"He's well looked after at the home, and comes from a long line of family members who lived well into their 90s."

He has lived at the home since suffering a stroke 10 years ago while living with John Jr and his wife, Ann, in Coal Clough Lane, Burnley.

After working for Lucas Aerospace during the Second World War, John went on to be a pattern-worker in Padiham,

He then finished his working life at GKN Aerospace.
